IS A JOLLY TRIP

Everybody Enjoyed the
Hoyt Farce Comedy.

Mr. Conner and Associates Become Favorites at Once—Play and People Liked.

Ah, but "A Trip to Chinatown" was a bonnie voyage. The crew was composed of real comedians, the cargo was pure fun, 99 per cent superfine. Every passenger had a combination smile and laugh coupon ticket. The maiden run of the merry ship of Hoyt mirth was in billows of parlor hilarity.

It was a treat to see the people in the audience enjoy themselves. It was a privilege to attend the performance of such a troupe as has been brought here by Manager Cooke. There is no "dead timber." Every member of the company has a chance at the center of the stage, and meets fully the requirements of the opportunity. Of course, the finished Mr. Conner, second to no comedian of the day, carries off the honors. But praise cannot be withheld from his associates in the work of amusing all. Each person in the cast has talent, is well trained, and has achieved success in the farce-comedy. Mr. Ward made the very most of the difficult part of Ben Gay. Mr. Dunbar and Mr. Pacie, the chums, were a happy pair all the time. Mr. Marion and Mr. Cushman are clever specialty people and at home in their lines. There is an attractive coterie of ladies. Miss Crater (the Widow) heads the list, with Emma Siegel (the Maid) a close second. Miss Lack was dainty and interesting as Willie Grow. Misses Gillette and Adams contributed fully to the evenly balanced product of the company.

The play was a rush of fun from beginning to end. All of the people sing and dance and are artists at their callings. The company has along especially for this tour the famous McCoy sisters, dancers known all over the world.

Mr. Conner has often been urged to star on his own account and has been advised to leave farce comedy. He prefers his present contract and his present line. He has the satisfaction of knowing that he pleases. It may be said of him that he is one of the very few men remaining in farce-comedy year after year with the same connection and same pieces and gaining in popular favor right along. Mr. Conner is the sort of actor that is taken to the bosom of an audience as a particular friend. In face, by-play, voice and genuine creation of comedy he has several fortunes.

Nearly every seat in the house was taken for the first appearance of the Hoyt-McKee company and the tickets are pretty well sold for the remainder of the engagement.

A Rag Baby is underlined for tomorrow evening.

INDIANS AND FILIPINOS.

In making a comparison between the Indians' and Filipinos' warlike qualities, Maj. Gen. T. M. Anderson, U. S. Vols., now on his way home from Manila, in a recent interview said that the Filipino as a soldier or fighter resembled very much the American Indian, though he thought the Indian the braver of the two races. The native Filipinos are persistent. They are not easily discouraged, and when cornered they will fight to the death of the last man before they will surrender. The General added, by way of explanation: "This was shown on the 5th of February, when my division made its advance to its present position. In one place I remember after a charge of our men a whole company of Filipinos suffered death fighting to the last in their trenches rather than be captured. But as a rule they will offer fight only from under cover, much like Indian fighting."

JAPAN AND PEACE.

A Tokyo dispatch states that recently Marquis Yamagata reported to the throne on the attitude to be taken by the Japanese Government in regard to the Disarmament Conference? His Majesty sent Marquis Tokudaiji to the Premier and inquired in detail into the instructions to be given to Baron Hayashi, the Japanese representative at the Conference, and specially instructed the Premier to make a thorough investigation into the attitude to be taken by the Powers with regard to the Orient.

INEVITABLE STRIFE.

"Do you think that we will ever have universal peace?" asked the thoughtful man.
"I dunno," answered the musician.
"If we do, I'd hate to have the contract of managing the singing organizations who will be assembled to sing anthems about it. The professional jealousy will be something terrific."
